STORIES IN SHAPES

March is shaping up to be a very busy month! This month the Tigers will be working on their first elective adventure: Stories in Shapes! This adventure will engage the Tigers' imagination and creativity as they work on some simple art projects that do not require traditional art skills.

The children will learn the art of storytelling using shapes and make their own designs using tangrams. Our Outing will be to the Woodmere Art Museum in Chestnut Hill on Saturday, March 21 from 1:00-2:30 PM for their Art & Storytelling Children's Tour. The cost is $5 per Tiger (and siblings) and free for adults.

March is also Pinewood Derby month! I hope everyone is working as hard on their Pinewood Derby cars as Ethan. I may be your Tiger den leader any other time but when it comes to Pinewood Derby, Ethan and I play to win!!! So take up the challenge, but most of all, have fun!

Finally, the Tigers will display their chivalry when they start their Good Knights adventure with an outing to Cradles to Crayons on Saturday, March 29, from 9:00 – 11:30 AM . Waivers and Permission slips must be completed to participate in this outing. Cradles to Crayons relies on donations from community members like you! They accept new or like new clothing, shoes, toys, books, and more. If you have anything you'd like to donate, please bring it with you to the outing. This outing also serves as meeting the service project requirement for the Tiger Circles: Duty to God adventure if your scout has not completed that adventure yet.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Games, games, and more games! The Tigers worked on the Games Tigers Play adventure in February by participating in some fun den activities. They used their creativity to make up their own games and taught their fellow Tigers how to play them. The Tigers continued making healthy food choices and brought in some nutritious snacks and green juice to share with their den mates.

March Madness came early for the Tigers when they watched our La Salle Explorers defeat the St. Bonaventure Bonnies in a nailbiter of a game! The Tigers even got a free pizza and a photo with the La Salle Explorer after the game!

Go Tigers!! Go Explorers!!
